Hog Prices

The federal government has established a floor price for hogs at public stockyards, the figure being $23.75 cwt. at Calgary and Edmonton.

These floor prices are to apply only to hogs delivered to public stockyards. If hog producers wish to sell through any other medium it is their own responsibility and there is no guarantee from the government that they will receive the floor price.

Because of administrative difficulties and other reasons the government thought it best to establish the floor price only on the basis of certain public stockyards rather than attempt to enforce the floor price at every point or plant at which hogs might be marketed or sold throughout Canada.

Mice and Men

It appears that mice have gotten the jump on men in the age-old fight to conquer outer space. An Air Force scientist recently revealed that one of its rockets, which was catapulted eighty miles into space, contained live monkeys and mice.

The surprising feature of the trip was that the monkeys and mice were ejected from the rocket at a high altitude and descended to the earth in parachutes. A tragic feature of this experiment was the fact that of five monkeys, equipped with parachutes, only one survived the descent, because four of the parachutes failed to open.

On the more scientific side, scientists discovered that both monkeys and mice could survive the ride eighty miles into outer space and the trip back to the earth, without any apparent ill effects. The monkeys were equipped with instruments for measuring pulse, breathing, heart action and blood pressure and this information was radioed back to the earth as the rocket ascended.

The chamber where the mice were confined was equipped with a device in which they were free to run and jump, while at the same time their antics were automatically photographed. Scientists have still not sent their rockets with living animals aboard into outer space. Outer space begins about 120 miles above the earth, but between 12 and 120 miles above the earth there exists a "border zone." This "border zone" of space must be thoroughly conquered before man dares venture into the outer space beyond.

The recent Air Force test indicates that man might be able to ascend seventy or eighty miles above the earth without ill effects if proper precautions are taken.

Dick Tracy Wrist Radio?

A new device known as a transistor, which is about the size and shape of a kernel of corn has been developed, which may make possible a number of electrical wonders about as fantastic as Dick Tracy's wrist radio.

This tiny device is capable of doing almost the same thing a radio vacuum tube can do and, in addition, has the advantage of a longer life and requires much less electrical power. Some people are speculating in the possibility of having, in the near future, pocket radios that play as well as ordinary table models and radio transmitters as small as a telephone.

Note and Comment

Kind words and sincere sympathy seldom take the place of bread to eat.

If you never advertise, some people will never hear of you, or what you have to offer.

The spectacle of a nation praying is more awe-inspiring than the explosion of an atomic bomb. The force of prayer is greater than any possible combination of man-made or man-controlled powers because prayer is man's greatest means of tapping the infinite resources of God.—J. Edgar Hoover.

Chinook Wheat

It is expected that a new kind of wheat known as Chinook will replace Rescue as a sawfly resistant variety. A fair supply will be available in 1953. It is recommended for the drier areas of Alberta.

In milling and baking qualities Chinook is equal to Marquis and superior to Rescue. It is not quite as resistant to sawflies as is Rescue. The Cereal Breeding Laboratory at Lethbridge is distributing Chinook wheat. A list of applicants is being kept on file in anticipation of seed distribution in 1953.

Danger Ahead

From the Tweed, (Ont.) News

Canadians in every walk of life, the farmer in particular, have reason to be fearful of the outcome of forthcoming wage contract negotiations between United Steelworkers Union and the three major basic steel industries in Canada.

If the steelworkers should win substantial wage increases, the result would inevitably be a boost in the cost of everything with a steel content, and that leaves few articles out in a range from a tin of canned food, to motor car, to a farm implement.

That would be serious enough.

But, the daily newspapers have reported, the steelworkers apparently would not be satisfied with a mere pay increase. They seek, in their new contract, wage parity with similar jobs in the giant industry in the United States.

Here may be the worst threat to the Canadian economy in recent years.

The United States steel industry produces for a market that is at least 10 times the size of the comparable market in Canada. And the U.S. industry's market is within compact freighting distance. Both these factors mean that production costs, say per ingot ton of steel, are considerably lower than for an ingot ton of steel, Canadian-made.

The income a person has depends on the market for his goods or services. The Canadian market must grow a great deal before we can all be as rich as the Joneses in the U.S.A.

Everyday Living

WHY CARRY THIS EXTRA LOAD?

1. The Police: A criminal who does not smoke would be a curiosity.
2. The Judge: Juvenile delinquency is largely the result of cigarette smoking.
3. The Physician: The tobacco heart fails to resist disease. Cigarette smoking causes the heart to beat five times per minute more than it should, or 300 times extra in an hour.
4. The Surgeon: A cigarette smoker? He doubtless will not survive the operation.
5. The Insurance Man: Smoking applicants not desirable subjects. An easy prey to disease and death.
6. The Athletic Coach: Hopelessly outclassed, he will fail in baseball, football, or basketball.

A LIFE-SHORTENING HABIT

Six insurance companies of Canada have found use of tobacco increases death rate, hence have placed smoking with dangerous occupations. Their findings are: Mortality among non-smokers 59 per 1,000, among smokers 93 per 1,000.

Dartmouth College records show smoking students died at average age of 49 years, 8 months; non-smokers at age of 59 years, 4 months.

A NEW ARITHMETIC

I am not much of a mathematician said the cigarette, but—
I can "Add" nervous troubles to a boy or girl.
I can "Subtract" from their physical energy.
I can "Multiply" their aches and pains.
I can "Divide" their mental powers.
I can "Take interest" from their work.
and "Discount" their chances for success.

YOUTH DELINQUENCY

is today the nation's most serious social problem. The cigarette and its influence is largely responsible. This habit, self-inflicted, is nothing less than a public-fostered social cancer, and the main ally of the iniquitous liquor traffic.

Farm Income Taxation

(From the Calgary Albertan)

Farm income taxation is threatening to become a major issue at the next session of Parliament. It does not follow that income taxes should be paid by provinces.

Alberta has about 13 percent of the farmers of Canada and in 1949 produced about 17 percent of the net farm income of Canada. Quebec farmers are much larger than those in Alberta and the total income tax collected from farmers across the country.

Saskatchewan has about 18 percent of the farms, produced 23 percent of the farm income, and paid 37 percent of the farm income taxes collected.

Ontario has 24 percent of the farms, produced 27 percent of the net farm income, and paid 11 percent of the farm income taxes.

And Quebec, with 21 percent of the farms and 15 percent of the net farm income, paid less than a third of one percent of the farm income taxes.

Yet there were more tax investigations at work on farm income among those on the Prairies.

BOUQUET FOR POULSON

I have read with interest the many letters sent in by Tom Poulson of Roehfort Bridge. Is Mr. Poulson a doctor, a lawyer, a prophet or just a farmer?

A man with such intellect, in my opinion, is wasting his time at Roehfort Bridge. We need men with his brains in our government.

Mr. Poulson's writing makes sense. More men with ideas like his in this world would right a lot of wrong.

FAVORS ONE GOOD ROAD

I agree 100 per cent with your article in the Onaway Westerner in favor of a better Rich Valley Road. We need it. Last spring we had to take our little girl, who was very sick, to hospital in Edmonton. It took us 2 1/2 hours to travel the 12 miles to the highway. That was with the help of a tractor! So, as you say, it is high time we got at least one good road to the nearest highway.

We like your paper very much.

GOOD LOOKIN' GUYS

We just received a letter from an Edmonton girl wailing that there aren't any handsome young men around Alberta any more. Cheer up, girls; there are still lots of good looking fellers. Most of them have enlisted in the Canadian Army, and some of the best will be going back to Canada when we finish our stint here. Infantry. Hanover, Germany

Now that you've quit playing up Queen Elizabeth in your paper, let me say all this talk about her being "most high and mighty leige lady" is pure bunk and baloney. She will rule us with no more power than her uncle, King Edward VIII. What happened to him when he wanted to marry the woman he loved? Why, they kicked him out! Ruler? Pfoof! Mrs. E. L. L.

Now Laugh
If a rubber shortage develops, a lot of motorists will be in the straits.
Second Thoughts
A man had a slight difference of opinion with his wife. But he acknowledged his error generously by saying: "You are right and I am wrong, as you generally are." Then he hurried off to catch his train.
"So nice of him to put it like that," his wife said to herself, and then she began to think about it.

Ain't Saying Who
At an amateur show one budding star imitated a well-known actor who was to appear on the same bill. Afterwards the amateur tackled the professional.
"Would you mind telling me what you thought of my abilities as shown by my impersonation of the actor?" he asked.
"Well," said the other cheerfully, "one of us is awful."

Condit's Car Less
Cogswell had taken up the automobile and had become very popular. In the apartment house he was riding down in the elevator one morning and met another tenant. "Tell me, honestly," he said to the neighbor, "does my practicing make you nervous?"
"Well, it used to, when I first heard the other tenants complaining about it," the neighbor replied, "but now I don't care what happens to you."

Seed Treatment
A "Must" For West's Farmers
Seed treatment is recognized a matter of major importance to farmers. Treatment with mercuric dusts has become an established practice. No one claims that all varieties of smuts can be successfully treated by them or by any other chemical. For example, the loose smuts of barley and wheat are not get-at-able with any sort of chemical, with possible exception of a new treatment being developed at the University of Alberta at Edmonton which seems to be giving encouraging results. Apart from this the accepted treatment is the hot water method.

All the other smuts may be controlled by mercurial dusts. Oat smut is the most difficult.
What has been proved by trial is of interest. In Leyton trials last summer on experimental plots at Birnie, Manitoba, untreated oats produced an average of one smutty head in each 54.
Oats treated with mercurial dust produced an average of one smutty head in each 214.
The dividends which come from this form of treatment may also be demonstrated from an article by C. J. Holten of the United States Department of Agriculture on "The Story of Smut and What To Do About It." Taking Mr. Holten's figures and applying them in exact ratio to western Canada, on the basis of 25 bushels per acre yield, the results are:
With only 5 per cent smut yield, reduced 1 1/2 bushels at $1.50 a bushel $1.87
Discount on smutty wheat grades down to No. 5 16 cents on 24 1/2 bushels 3.56

Less cost of smut control treatment per acre05
Net loss per acre from smut $3.38
Or a loss on 10 acres of $33.80

"...the willingness to find a way"

A man who started a new business a few years ago recently wrote to pay tribute to the bank's part in helping to make it a success:

"We were fortunate in having, as our banker, a man who could combine with experience the willingness to find a way that called not for experience alone but for imagination as well."

The chartered banks are forever alert to the fresh problems, the changing needs of their customers. At all times, in all your banking problems, you can depend on your local bank to bring experience and imagination to the task of helping you to "find a way".

Urges Church Members Put Zeal Into Religion

CALGARY.—If Protestants put the same zeal into their religious beliefs as did the witnesses, they would move the world. Speaking to a large congregation in Central United Church Sunday evening, Rev. G. B. Swiler said it was inconceivable that members of the religious group were not entirely sincere in their beliefs.

But in their enthusiasm for Armageddon, the coming of the end of the world, they had not paid much attention to improving existing conditions in the world, the minister stated.

He outlined the history of the movement, what the beliefs were, and what the movement sought.

The tremendous mass of "Witness" publications, he said, were printed at Bethel House, a seven-story building in New York City, where the devout workers received

$10 a month plus their keep. They were, he said, quite content to work for this wage.

Their purpose was to get the truth to the people. The latest date they offered for the Armageddon was 1972.

Those in the United Church did not believe the group's interpretation of the Bible was sound, accurate or scientific. Dr. Swiler said, "but they must believe it, or they would not make such sacrifices as they do," he stated.

As members of a democracy the group was entitled to speak its mind and this right should be denied no one, provided it did not interfere with his fellowmen.

OXFORD, Calif.—Prospective bride Frank J. Laubaucher of Oxford and William R. Williams of Camarillo were pacing the corridor at St. John's hospital here.

"Your face looks familiar," Williams said. Laubaucher gave him a long, slow look.

"You were here on the night of Dec. 2, 1940," he asked. Williams said he was.

The Laubaucher child, Michael, and the Williams child, Susan Elaine, were both born on that date.

Shortly after the second meeting of the fathers, another Laubaucher baby, Jean, and another Williams baby, Joan Elizabeth, were born. The wives, Marjorie Laubaucher and Lillian Williams, had their babies within five minutes of each other just after noon.

MISSING: ODOR OF SOUR TURNIPS FROM TOWN'S WATER SUPPLY

EDMONTON, Alta. (EUP)—Residents of Alberta's northern High Prairie district no longer taste turnips with everything they eat, thanks to an engineering project of the provincial government.

The Water Resources department announced the completion of an 1,800-foot dam on the Heart River, four miles east of the eastern tip of shallow Lake Winnipeg, from where an "odor of corrupting turnips" had floated over the district for years.

The odor came from the troublesome backwash of the West Prairie River, emptying into the Heart at the point where the dam was built. Dead fish and rotting vegetation littered the area from the junction of the two rivers to where trickles of water flowed into the almost bone-dry lake.

But the dam diverted the backed-up water through a mile and a half natural creek and a canal into the lake, from where it flowed through a two-mile outlet canal and finally back to the Heart River.

Reg Bailey, engineer in charge of the project, said that already the level of the lake was four feet higher than its customary mark, and the water was suitable for drinking for the first time.

Bailey reported that residents had refused to leave the district, despite the odor and also periodic floods caused by the usually rivers. However, now that the diversion was completed, they had no reason to abandon their stubbornly held homes.

There were other benefits, too. The lake provides a feeding ground for ducks, much to the pleasure of Ducks Unlimited, which contributed $25,000 to the project.

Bailey said the dam has water power possibilities, since there is a 75-foot drop between the level of the Heart River and the lake. The nearby town of McLennan, once in a bad way for water, now could easily pipe a fresh supply from lake. Townfolk were already considering the erection of a resort center on the 20-mile lake.

Bailey said the diversion was part of a long-term engineering plan to control all the unruly rivers of the High Prairie district.

Beautiful Baby

LATEST in our series of Beautiful Babies is lovely Lillian Delores, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brodie. The sweetest of the Brodie family lives with her parents at Vilna, Alta.

He said he would now turn his attention to flood control on the West Prairie River. About 72 square miles of farmland near the town of High Prairie have been flooded nearly every spring, he said.

The problem of these floods has been under investigation since 1911, he added, but no complete answer has yet been devised.

$37,000.00 Raised In Country Points In '51

ST. ALBERT — The Canadian Cancer Society has begun its seventh spring campaign for funds. This time, the objective is $65,000.00, and again, the society is counting heavily on the country points for the success of its campaign. Last year, 130 country points in northern Alberta contributed $37,000.00. This year, the society would find at least an extra $5,000.00 in northern Alberta, because it has taken on new responsibilities.

Work has begun on the Dr. John S. McEachern Research Wing at the University of Alberta. This research wing of the University medical building will be ready for operation this summer, and it will require more cancer dollars to keep it in operation. In it, doctors and graduate students will be able to investigate possible clues to the cause of cancer. Their investigation will go on the year round, but funds that make their investigations possible are raised only once a year, in the northern Alberta cancer campaign.

People in districts where there have been organized campaigns can start bringing their donations direct to the Cancer Crusade Headquarters, 10225 Jasper Avenue in Edmonton.

Mrs. Neil Ross is the Crusade Manager for St. Albert.
